

TURY CLUB MEMBERS ARE ENTERTAINED

S. A. HAYS AND MISS MARGARET GILMORE ARE HOSTESSES AT AN OPEN MEETING AT THE HAYS HOME ON SATURDAY EVENING—ABOUT 100 GUESTS PRESENT.

DELIGHTFUL PROGRAM

Members of the Century Club, a number of friends, numbering about one hundred and twenty, were delightfully entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Hays on Saturday evening, at an open meeting at which Mrs. S. A. Hays and Miss Margaret Gilmore were the hostesses.

The club regularly meets on Saturday afternoon. Last Saturday was the first of the season, and Mrs. Hays, who is president of the club, and Miss Gilmore, who is secretary, were to be the hostesses. In order that they might entertain a number of the friends of the club members, they decided upon the evening program.

The home was tastefully decorated with spring flowers, tulips and jonquils, and utilized in the decorations. Upon arrival the guests were seated in parlors, dining room and hall of the home, facing the front parlor in the program of the evening was given.

After Mrs. Hays in a few appropriate words had told the guests the purpose of the meeting, a most delightful program of musical numbers and talks on literature were given. Charles Scholfield, of the DePauw school of Music and Dean McCutchan of the DePauw School of Music each roughly entertained the guests with vocal numbers. Prof. Barnum of DePauw School of Music rendered in numbers, while Mrs. Fred L. Bair sweetly sang several selections. Mrs. H. M. Smith played the accompaniments for each.

Following the musical numbers, F. C. Tilden of DePauw spoke on literature. His subject was "Books Worth While." After the completion of the program delicious refreshments of ice cream, cake and coffee were served.

Although Spring was scheduled to begin last Saturday, there have been few evidences of it in the past few days. The weather has been extremely cold and disagreeable but prospects are for farming days before long. Most everyone is tired of the winter and are ready and anxious for real spring.

Mrs. Everett Harbison and two sons, who were called to Indianapolis by the illness of her mother, spent a few days here visiting friends before returning to their home in Lawrenceville, Ill.

Ward Byrkit, of Terre Haute, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Byrkit, on Bloomington street.

CLAIMS FRAUD IN BIG LAND TRADE

ELIZA J. MORAN ALLEGES THAT ILLINOIS FARM REPRESENTED TO HER TO BE A DANDY, IS 80 MILES FROM A RAILROAD AND THAT THE LAND IS VERY POOR.

WANTS DEAL SET ASIDE

Alleging that Joseph C. Fortner defrauded her when he traded her a 80-acre farm in Illinois for some land in Cloverdale township, this county, and some land in Lawrence county, Eliza J. Moran has, by her attorneys Lyon & Peck, filed a suit in the Putnam Circuit Court, asking that the transaction be set aside.

Eliza Moran, in her complaint, alleges that the Illinois farm was represented to her to be a fine, level tillable land, well improved and near a railroad; while in fact the land is poor and 80 miles from a railroad. The land, she says, is worth only about $1,000, while the land she traded for it is worth more than $5,000.

The woman claims that the land she traded to Fortner had been conveyed to his daughter, Minnie Groves, and she is made a party to the suit.

GREENCASTLE MAN CAUGHT IN A RAID

Sergt. Hagerman's persistence was rewarded early Sunday morning when he determined to find evidence of illegal liquor selling after he had directed a raid on an alleged resort at 120 South Senate avenue. First search of the place, which was operated by Dolly Moore, failed to disclose any evidence that liquor was being sold, but Sergt. Hagerman wouldn't give up.

He made a thorough examination of the house, and at length found a trap door, hidden by a rug under the dining table. He lifted the door, and then under the floor was a box containing thirty-four pint bottles of beer and twenty-four "empties."

The Moore woman was arrested charged with conducting a resort and with operating a "blind tiger," and two other women and two men found there were arrested on statutory charges. The men gave their names and addresses as Chris Raguhe, 412 East Court street, and Fred Montgomery, Greencastle, Ind.—Indianapolis Star.

Fred Montgomery is probably a fictitious name as no one by the name of Fred Montgomery is known here.

Sunday was field day in Greencastle for the Anti-Saloon League of Indiana, and the pulpit of each church in the town was occupied by a prominent temperance lecturer. State Superintendent E. S. Shumaker was here and was one of the speakers. Collection taken at each church were given to the Anti-Saloon League. The league is now engaged in a campaign to arouse interest in the proposed Constitutional Convention which will be voted upon this fall. The league desires to secure a constitution convention so that it may secure the adoption of a state-wide prohibitional clause in the state's constitution. A meeting was held in the assembly room of the court house this morning at which preliminary steps toward organizing to fight for a constitutional convention were taken. The executive committee to have charge of the work appointed this morning is as follows: chairman, F. C. Tilden; G. W. Hanna, H. B. Longden, R. A. Ogg, C. W. Bridges, W. W. Jones, E. G. Shouse, A. N. Holloway, and Robert Shuey.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. O'Hair entertained their nephews and nieces who live in Greencastle at an old-fashioned taffy pulling Monday evening. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shoptaugh, Mr. and Mrs. Alvah Thomas, Mrs. Fred Hillis, Mr. and Mrs. Neely O'Hair, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Thomas, and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Curtis. The evening was a most delightful one.

The condition of Mrs. Oscar Webster, who has been ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Fenton Lawler, at Noblesville, is much better. She will return home Friday.

A MILLION TREES FOR INDIANA

If the people of Indiana follow the plans of the Indiana Forestry Association, 1,000,000 trees will be planted in the state on April 17 in observance of Arbor Day. If the people will follow this movement on such a scale for the next ten years a greater part of the denuded forests of the Hoosier land will be restored to their former grandeur. Through the work of the association and other forces in other years, there is very widespread interest in this conservation movement throughout the state, and it is annually gathering in momentum. The association urges the planting of trees on lawns, in parks, about jails, poor asylums, orphan homes, in public parks, around city and country school houses, on college grounds, along the country highways—anywhere and everywhere that trees will grow. The farmers are asked to plant trees in their wood lots, along fences and about outbuildings. Everywhere the association hopes that April 17 will not only be marked by tree planting, but by speeches, parades and other public demonstrations which will promote the spirit of civic patriotism.

The association has its headquarters at 316 Traction Terminal Building, (the interurban station), Indianapolis, and much effort is being made to promote the activities of the day all over Indiana. The officers of the association are President, Charles W. Fairbanks; vice-President, Charles Great-house, Superintendent of Public Instruction; Secretary, George B. Lockwood; Treasurer, W. A. Guthrie.

TOES CUT OFF BY A VANDALIA TRAIN

Jefferson Crawley, age 21 years, a son of Constable Crawford Crawley, had the toes of his right foot cut off on Monday by a Vandalia freight train. The accident happened about 100 yards east of the freight depot at near 3 o'clock. Crawley, it is said, attempted to cross between two freight cars, when the train started and he was thrown between the cars. A wheel of the car passed over the ball of his right foot, cutting off all of his toes.

The injury of Jefferson Crawley, the son of Constable Crawford Crawley of this city, who fell between two cars of a Vandalia train near the freight depot in south Greencastle Monday afternoon, was not as serious as first reported.

Two toes of his right foot were cut off when a wheel of a car passed over his foot. He was taken to his home on the corner of Howard and Depot streets, and was attended by Drs. J. F. Gillespie and W. W. Tucker.

Crawley, with a number of other boys, were riding the freight train which was moving slowly. When he went to alight from the trains he swung down from the car, his hold broke and he fell to the ground. Fortunately he was thrown to the side of the train and only a portion of his foot was caught under the car wheels.

TERRE HAUTE SAW RUINS OF TORNADO YEAR AGO TODAY

One year ago Monday Terre Haute was visited by far the worst catastrophe ever recorded in the annals of Vigo County history, probably in the history of Indiana. A gale of unknown velocity swept through the south part of the city, leaving death and destruction in its wake. Twenty lives were sacrificed and the property loss amounted to about $1,500,000. Such was the tornado which cast a pall over Terre Haute on the morning of Monday, March 24, 1913.

Homes which represented the savings of a lifetime, of some, or in which were sunk the meager savings and the high ambitions of many young men and women, were razed to the ground in a second.

Even while the sorrow was greatest the city started to recover, and today may be found intact many of the homes which were destroyed, although certain sections of the storm district have not taken on their old appearance yet.

Hand in hand with the tornado came the warm spring rains which widened the Wabash River by miles, and Terre Haute experienced the worst flood ever known there. The water was higher than it ever had been, and for one night the entire city groined about in the darkness. However, this lasted but a short time and scarcely had the crest of the flood rolled by and all the homeless cared for when the work of reviving the city was started.

The controversy between George Blake and Joe Baker, growing out of the closing down of the Blake Moving Picture show, by Mr. Blake, after he had leased a building from Mr. Baker, has been settled and the case dismissed from court. Mr. Baker filed suit asking damages from Mr. Blake. By a compromise Mr. Blake paid Mr. Baker $200, and paid all court costs.

Mrs. E. H. Shields spent the day in Amo.

GREAT MAGICIAN WILL FURNISH AN ATTRACTION AT THE HANNA OPENING.

Jesse Hughes, manager of the big Hanna Opening that will be held at the furniture store April 4th, was in Indianapolis Monday and obtained the services of Nichols, the great Magician, who will give one of the feature attractions of the day. The Cross Sisters' Orchestra will furnish music for the occasion.

Nichols is a well-known magician and is known as the "modern deceptionist." He will give entertainments in the morning, afternoon and evening on the second floor of the Hanna building.

Mr. Hughes has completed arrangements for a number of factory representatives from several of the large manufacturing concerns to be at the opening and demonstrate their goods. A demonstration of vacuum cleaners will be in one of the large display windows in the furniture store.

Representatives for the Hanna store started on a tour of the county this morning to advertise the attraction. All the towns within a radius of 20 miles of this city will be billed and the opening will be one of the best advertised attractions ever held in this city.

Mr. Hanna was complimented highly by the National Trade Journal several months ago on the management of the other big opening that was held here several years ago. A crowd of between 3,500 and 4,000 were entertained at the former opening. The opening April 4th promises to be much better and larger than before. Over $100 worth of furniture will be given away at the event.

KAPPA SORORITY AND ALUMNI ARE GUESTS AT DINNER IN BRAZIL.

A handsomely appointed 7 o'clock dinner was given Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. W. J. Snyder on N. Meridian street, when the members of the Kappa Kappa Gamma Sorority and the alumni of DePauw University were entertained, the hostesses being Mrs. Snyder, Mrs. William Luther, Misses Louise McCrea, Sue Davis and Mabel Bishop, who are also members of the sorority.

The color scheme was green and yellow, and was carried out effectively. Dinner was served in three courses at small tables and large tables in the dining room. Each was artistically decorated for the occasion in vases of yellow daffodils and the place cards were green, while the ices and mints were green. After dinner was served, a general good time was enjoyed, and the sorority of Greencastle gave a minstrel, which was a very delightful feature.

Those present were: Mrs. Bert Conley of Newport, Ind.; Mrs. Harry Pell of this city, Misses Marion Grimes and Eunice McCullough of Indiana University, at Bloomington, all members of the sorority; and from Greencastle were Mrs. Gwinn, the Misses Cox, Alice Christian, Carmine Irvin, the Misses Sullivan, Rowena Cosner, Jessie Milnor, Misses Tuhey, Esther Edwards, Mildred Morgan, Isabelle Hughes, Agnes Stiner, Miss Scott, Dorothy Lockwood, Gertrude Moore, Miss Boley, Katherine Campbell, Mary Tucker, Miss Phillips, Jean Summers, Lelia Claire Lammers, Jean Morris, Lillian Neal, Charlotte Wells, Freda Rhem, Julia Jean Nelson and the members of the alumni present were Mrs. Donner, Mrs. Nelson, Mrs. Longdon, Misses Hazel Bridges, Mamie Naylor, Miss Trout and Mrs. Tucker.—Brazil News.

DEMOCRATS PICK MOSS FOR RACE

SHORT DISTRICT CONVENTION RATIFIES WORK OF REPRESENTATIVE IN CONGRESS—MEMBER OF HOUSE THANKS DELEGATES AND PLEDGES SUPPORT TO PRESIDENT.

ADMINISTRATION PRAISED

Less than 45 minutes were required by Democrats of the Fifth Congressional District, who met in convention in the Superior Court room yesterday afternoon to nominate Ralph W. Moss of Ashboro to succeed himself as representative from the Fifth Indiana District in the lower house of Congress. Dr. Sourwine of Brazil placed Moss' name in nomination. National and state administrations and the work of Congress were indorsed.

Chairman James L. Randel of Greencastle called the convention to order at 1:40 o'clock. Secretary Forrest Kaufman of Dana read the official call and the Rev. L. O. Richmond of the First Presbyterian Church gave a short prayer. The committee on permanent organization selected Judge James P. Hughes of Greencastle as permanent chairman of the convention, and W. F. Cronin of Terre Haute as secretary.

Committees Are Selected.
The permanent organization committee was composed of Edward Schuetz, Clay county; C. C. Gillen, Putnam county; George Macomber, Hendricks county; Willis A. Satterlee, Vermillion county; Louis Silberman, Vigo county.

The committee on resolutions consisted of John Chesterfield, Clay county; William Sage, Putnam county; Horace Miles, Hendricks county; Marley Kendall, Vermillion county; Dr. John O. Garrigus, Vigo county.

Dr. Sourwine, a member of the Clay county delegation, then placed the name of Representative Moss before the convention, with a very brief talk. He praised the work of Mr. Moss in Congress. The nomination was seconded by the chairman of each delegation: A. L. Clark, Vermillion; H. F. Gaebler, Parke; William A. Kreigh, Putnam; William King, Hendricks; and Mayor Donn M. Roberts, chairman of the Vigo county central committee. Dr. Frank A. Tabor was chairman of the Vigo delegation.

Seconds from all parts of the convention floor then were heard when Chairman Jacob Luther of the Clay county delegation moved that the nomination of Mr. Moss be by acclamation. The motion was carried.

Moss Thanks Convention.
Chairman Hughes then introduced Mr. Moss, who thanked the delegations for the honor conferred on him by acclamation in a Democratic district convention. He pointed to the success of the Democratic administration, praised the work of President Wilson, who, he said, has ruled above party, and Secretary Bryan, and pledged his support to them.

Mr. Moss said the present government was not only living up to the letter, but to the spirit of the civil service law, but said that he expected the civil service reformed promised, although it might not be done during this term of Congress. Mr. Moss said that he was heartily opposed to a man holding a good job on high salary for 25, 30 or 40 years and then being retired on a pension. He pointed to the new tariff and currency laws as model acts, and said that in a single year the Democrats had passed more constructive legislation than the Republicans had been able to in 10 years.

Importance of the election next fall was mentioned by Mr. Moss, when he said that the result would signify the acceptance or rejection of the policies of President Wilson as head of the Democratic party. He closed by asking the delegates and spectators who filled the court room to consider what had been accomplished, and predicting local and state victories for the Democratic party.—Terre Haute Star.

The sale of the personal property of the late Bud Browning, at the Browning farm, three miles north of town today, was largely attended and prices ranged high. Joe Allee, administrator of the estate, had charge of the sale.

DEMOCRATS RENOMINATE RALPH MOSS

CLAY COUNTY CONGRESSMAN IS CHOSEN TO SUCCEED HIMSELF AS CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS FROM THE FIFTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT—CONVENTION HELD IN TERRE HAUTE TUESDAY.

JUDGE HUGHES CHAIRMAN

The Democrats of the Fifth Congressional District met in the Vigo county court room, in Terre Haute at 1:30 o'clock on Tuesday and nominated the Hon. Ralph W. Moss, of Clay county, as candidate for Congress. There was no opposition to Congressman Moss and his selection was unanimous.

The convention was called to order at 1:30 o'clock by District Chairman James L. Randel. On a ballot for the selection of a permanent chairman for the convention, James P. Hughes, of Greencastle, Judge of the Putnam Circuit Court, was chosen. There was no opposition to the selection of Judge Hughes.

TO TRAIN THE CAST FOR ANNUAL G. H. S. PLAY

The Greencastle high school is very fortunate in securing the services of Miss Jessie A. Luther of Indianapolis to coach this year's play given for the benefit of athletes. She is a graduate of the Boston School of Expression of which Dr. Carey is the director, and comes highly recommended as a reader and coach.

Miss Luther will also take up the class in reading which was formerly under the care of Mr. Walter Pfaff. She employs systematic and natural methods to get her results and the excellent results may be seen in the pupils which have come from her instruction. Miss Luther has read with eminent success in many of the larger cities of this country and of Canada and she was dramatic instructor in the Boston University.

Miss Marguerite Callander of Greencastle is now a pupil of the same school in Boston from which Miss Luther graduated.

Death of James Harcourt.

The death of James Harcourt, superintendent of the Orphans' Home south of the city occurred Tuesday morning at 11:30 o'clock, after a several days' illness. The funeral was held at the Providence Church south of this city on the National Road Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. Rev. J. M. Holmes of Morgan county will conduct the funeral services. The interment will be in the Providence cemetery.

Mr. Harcourt has been in poor health for several years, but his last serious illness was of only ten days' duration. He is survived by a wife, and five children, who are: Theodore C. Harcourt of Cloverdale, Wendall C. Harcourt of near Mt. Meridian, and Misses Grace, Ruth and Blanche, who reside at the home south of this city.

No Summer School.

The Board of Education never has supported a vacation school in the sense of having hired teachers and paying them. The trustees have exercised a certain control of the summer school work that has been done in the past; they have recognized certain teachers whose instruction would be considered standard; they have permitted the use of schoolrooms with their apparatus; and they have through their superintendent decided upon the studies that might be undertaken and fixed upon the time to be given them.

Notwithstanding the encouragement given, the board does not believe the summer school has shown itself of real value to pupils. In accordance with this belief, the board at the meeting of March 24, 1914, passed a resolution withdrawing all recognition and support of summer school work.

W. P. Sackett, Sec'y Bd. of Education.

DEMOCRATS READY FOR FINISH FIGHT

Ticket Is Nominated, Platform Adopted, Harmony Prevails.

B. F. SHIVELY HEADS TICKET

Homer L. Cook Nominated For Secretary of State—Stubborn Contest For State Treasurer.

Indianapolis, March 19.—It was 9:45 when Bernard Korbly, Chairman of Democratic State Committee, called the convention to order.

The interior of Tomlinson hall was handsomely decorated. In the galleries women predominated. The arena floor was occupied by the delegates, nearly 2,000 in number. Over the stage huge portraits of Wilson and Marshall looked down on the convention. On the fronts of the gallery boxes pictures of Bryan and Ralston were hung in profusion.

With the playing of bands, democratic yells and hustling of candidates and their friends it was an inspiring scene.

Not a discordant note was uttered during the long session. The only contest was that before the resolution committee, which did not adjourn until 5:00 a. m., the morning the convention met. The convention cheered as each plank in the platform was read, especially the one declaring for a state-wide primary election, and workmen's compensation law.

Invocation Applauded.

There was an unusual incident when, at its conclusion, the following invocation by Rev. Mr. Wicks was applauded:

"Guide, Ruler and Sustainer of the nation, we would begin our deliberations with an acknowledgment of our dependence upon Thee. We seek to know Thy will that we may make it ours. Thy will is perfect justice and in so far we give ourselves to justice. Thou art with us. May justice reign on our lives and enacted into wise legislation, become our bequest to posterity. And in giving effect to justice we shall become worthy of that great name we bear, the name of Democrats. Amen."

Senator Shively arrived at 9:45. Tremendous cheering greeted his arrival and the band struck up "The Stars and Stripes Forever."

Governor Ralston came in three minutes behind Senator Shively. Chairman Korbly called the convention to order at 9:40. Senator Kern had not arrived at that time. It took Chairman Korbly ten minutes to get order.

National Committeemen Taggart came in at the general entrance rather than by the stage door. His appearance was another signal for applause.

Immediately after Chairman Korbly had secured order, Amos R. Wood of

HOMER L. COOK
Secretary of State.

Indianapolis, secretary of the convention, called the roll of counties.

Chairman Korbly introduced Governor Ralston as the temporary chairman of the convention.

"He needs no introduction," said Korbly. "He is one of the best loved and best known Democrats and one of the greatest Governors Indiana has ever had."

Governor Ralston's prefatory compliments to Wilson and Bryan were applauded tremendously. Mention of Bryan's name caused an uproar of cheering which was the most pronounced of the forenoon session of the convention.

Senator John W. Kern, assumed the permanent chairmanship at 11:35. Senator Kern said:

"The issues of the hour, national and state, have been discussed in a masterful manner by your great governor. I bring you greetings from the president of these United States and affectionate greetings from our own little giant, Thomas Marshall and the great democratic and secretary of state, W. J. Bryan."

"The great democracy, true to every trust of the people, has taken the front rank in the march of progress and thank God, our party will consequently be in control for years to come. You cheer the name of Wilson and Bryan because you approve of the things they stand for and you further approve of their acts and utterances by nominating men here today that are in harmony with the policies and principles of our party."

Senator Shively Speaks.

Senator Kern then introduced Senator Shively who had just been renominated to succeed himself in the adoption of the committee on rules and order of business. Senator Shively said in part:

"The tariff has been revised and has been revised downward. In that work no honest fear, no mistaken apprehension was lightly ignored. On the other hand, that powerful confederacy of special privileges which has fattened on the perversion of custom house taxation did not dictate a paragraph, line or syllable of that revision. It was a revision conceived, wrought and enacted into law in the interests of the whole country.

GEORGE A. BITLER
Treasurer of State.

"Time today does not permit discussion of details. But already the beneficent influence of that revision is manifest; the political laboratory is moved out. The mechanical laboratory is going in. Producing enterprise is building on the firm and enduring foundation of the bountiful, natural resources of the country, and the capacity of the American people to develop them.

"The tariff has been withdrawn as a debauching influence in the politics and business of the country. The tariff will cease to be a sectional question. It will cease to be a class question. It will cease to be a partisan question.

"In no time of peace in the history of the country has a larger number of perplexing problems confronted a president than those coming to President Wilson, at his inauguration. These he has met with a discernment, a firmness, delicacy and tact unexcelled in our history. He brings to the solution of the vexed problems the courage, frankness, candor, openness and good faith in diplomatic intercourse so becoming the sincerity and justice of a powerful nation. He would compose all questions of our relations in the family of nations on the enduring basis of a solid international morality. His obligation is to the peace and security of all our citizens. The American people will approve a president who will no more countenance a heedless stampede into extreme measures than would he shrink from such measures should circumstances justify them. In the great work of administering the difficult task of our foreign relations, he has at his side the sturdy, unfailing support of that other heroic American with the impulses of peace and the courage of war, William J. Bryan."

A stubborn contest on state treasurer resulted in the nomination of George A. Bitler, of Fort Wayne, on the eighth ballot.

Richard M. Milburn, of Jasper, was nominated for attorney general on the second ballot.

The last and final nominations were J. Fred France, of Huntington, for clerk of supreme and appellate courts, and Edward Barrett, of Plainfield, for state geologist.

The convention adjourned after a continuous session of twelve hours.

DEMOCRATIC STATE PLATFORM

Declares For State Primaries and a Workman's Compensation Law.

After commending the country on the work of the democratic party under the leadership of President Wilson, endorsing the United States senators, and the administration of Governor Ralston, the resolutions conclude:

We favor an act creating a board which will provide for mediation, conciliation and arbitration in controversies between employers and employees, and we recommend the enactment of a law similar to the federal law on this subject.

We pledge a rigid enforcement of the laws that have been enacted in the interest and for the protection of railroad employees and all other employees and wage earners of the state.

Favor State-Wide Primary.

We declare in favor of a state-wide primary election law, carefully guarded as to simplicity and economy, at which the people shall nominate all candidates for office; that all the provisions of the corrupt practices act and general election laws shall be made to apply to such primary elections—the state convention to be retained for the purpose of counsel, organization and declaration of party principles, and precede the nominating primaries.

We commend the last general assembly for its prompt response to the demands of the people for beneficial and up-to-date legislation. In obedience to this demand it enacted many laws for the benefit of all the people, among which may be mentioned the laws creating the public service commission; providing for vocational education; the anti-hog cholera law; the inheritance tax law; the housing law; the law regulating loan sharks; the new registration act, and the law providing for the appointment of county agent to act under the supervision of Purdue University in disseminating practical information among those engaged in agriculture.

Commend Public Service Commission.

We especially commend the legislature for the enactment of the public service commission act. The wisdom of such enactment has already been vindicated. We approve the course of the public service commission in the administration of this act and pledge the people of the state that this law shall be maintained in its integrity. The result of the application of its broad general provisions will prove a financial benefit to the people of the state and will establish equitable and just relations between the utilities and the users of their service.

For Workman's Compensation Law.

The general welfare demands the enactment of a workman's compensation law in conformity with the humane spirit of the age.

RICHARD M. MILBURN
Attorney General.

We approve the action of the last general assembly in making provision that the people may declare whether they desire a convention to frame a new constitution for Indiana.

We recognize the right of the people to regulate the social and moral conditions of their own communities and their right to say whether intoxicating liquors shall be sold in their own city or township, and that the decision of the majority shall bind all.

A democratic legislature has recognized that right and provided for an expression of the will of the majority, and we approve that law.

We also approve the action of the same legislature in the enactment of a law providing for a stricter regulation of the liquor traffic. We demand a rigid and impartial enforcement of the law, and we again declare against the repeal or modification of the present remonstrance laws.

The disastrous floods of 1913 resulted in a tremendous loss of life and property in the state. The value of the property destroyed runs far into the millions, the real amount of which can never be estimated. The danger of a recurrence of these floods is a constant menace to the property, lives, health and comfort of the citizens of the state. The local authorities have been endeavoring to find ways and means for the prevention of these disasters, but existing laws are wholly inadequate to meet the situation.

This being a subject which affects the state generally, we believe that legislation should be enacted by the next general assembly which would enable the state to join with local authorities in the improvement of the waterways, the construction of levees, and such other means as will prevent a repetition of these flood disasters.

We hereby adopt the rooster as the emblem of the democratic party.

WATER RATE HEARING TO BE APRIL 6

MAYOR WALTER COOPER RECEIVES NOTICE FROM PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION FIXING TIME FOR HEARING ON PETITION OF GREENCASTLE CORPORATION WHICH ASKS THAT RATE BE INCREASED.

PLANT VALUED AT $135,933

The hearing of the petition of the Greencastle Water Works Company, in which an increase in water rates for Greencastle is asked, will be heard by the Public Utilities Commission of Indiana in Indianapolis on Monday, April 6. Notice to this effect has been received by Mayor Walter Cooper, representing the city, and B. S. Corwin, attorney, representing the water works company.

The petition of the Water Works Company in which the increased rates are asked, was filed by the company late last fall. At that time the company gave up its franchise, leaving its case in the hands of the Utilities Commission.

Soon after the petition had been filed the commission sent to Greencastle, experts who appraised all of the property owned by the Water Works Company. Expert bookkeepers, also were sent here to audit the books of the company, so that the commission might have absolute data when the case comes before them for consideration.

With the notice that the case would be up for a hearing on April 8, came the tentative valuation of the plant of the water works company, which was compiled by the experts who were here.

The valuation of the plant as fixed by the experts is $135,933. The water works company values its plant at $200,000. The commission, however, in figuring the valuation figures that a new plant could be built for $169,630. It fixed the valuation of the plant on February 1, which allows for depreciation, at $135,630.

According to the figures of the experts, the buildings of the company, which includes the stand pipe, are worth $72,912. The land is worth $3,856 while the equipment is worth $19,758. Other property brings the total up to $135,933.

City Attorney Frank Lyon, Mayor Cooper and City Engineer Alec Lane are at work preparing to go before the commission to insist that the valuation of the plant still is too high, while the water works company will insist that it is much too low. After hearing the arguments and agreeing upon a valuation the commission will fix a water rate for Greencastle.

MISS MARTHA RIDPATH ENTERTAINS BIBLE CLASS

Miss Martha J. Ridpath entertained the members of her Sunday school class at the parlors of the College Avenue M. E. church Friday evening at 6:30 o'clock with a dinner party. About fifty guests were present.

The rooms were very beautifully decorated with the class colors, white and green. An elaborate four-course dinner was served. Miss Ridpath was assisted by the mothers of the local boys, who are members of the Bible class.

BROWNING IS FINED FOR INTOXICATION

James Browning, a resident of south Greencastle, was arrested by Policeman Carlos Watson Friday night about 10 o'clock at the gas plant in an intoxicated condition. He was placed in jail. McNUTT IS OPPOSED TO JOINING FORCE

District Chairman of Progress Party Criticises Action of A. T. Spears.

BRAZIL, Ind., March 20.—L. McNutt, district chairman of the Progressives of this district, today issued a statement in which he condemned the action of County Chairman Dr. T. Spears in agreeing to consider a proposition of a joint ticket with the Republican party in the coming election.

Wants Full Ticket.

In his letter he said:

"Protests have come to me from over the county. Amalgamation means a loss to the party of 25 per cent, at least. As chairman of the Fifth District I shall use my best endeavors and efforts to see that county ticket is nominated; in the Fifth District; in every county, would feel that I was a derelict in duties, should I fail to oppose amalgamation. I trust that every Progressive in the county or district that entertained a thought of amalgamation will study very closely the interests of the party in the county, state and nation. I believe that will realize that the best interests of the Progressives is to put up a full front."

REGISTRATION IS NECESSARY

OCTOBER 5TH., THE DAY

The new act enacted by the legislature of 1913 provides for one registration day, which shall be on Monday, the twenty-ninth day before the election. This will be on the 5th day of October this year. A September session may be held on petition of 200 voters of the county auditor eighty days before the election.

There shall be a registration board in each precinct, consisting of an inspector, appointed by the board of commissioners at their August session and two clerks of different political parties, appointed by the inspector on the recommendation of the chairman of the two political parties casting the highest vote in the county at the preceding general election. The members of the registration board shall be eligible as members of the election board.

The county commissioners shall provide a room in each precinct for the meeting of the registration board and if practicable the same room in which the election is to be held. Due notice shall be given, by posting and publication, of the meeting of the registration board and voters, failing to register shall not be allowed to vote. The hours of registration are from 6 a. m. to 9 p. m. and on the written request of ten voters three of whom are freeholders, the session may be repeated the next one or two days if necessary to accommodate the voters.

The compensation of the board shall be $3 a day for the inspectors, and 10 cents per mile for the shortest distance between his residence and the auditor's office, and $3 per day for each clerk.

One watchman from each party may be present during registration hours, such watchmen to be designated by the county chairman.

It shall be a ground for challenge that the person offering to vote is not registered, but it shall be the duty of the registration board to refuse such a vote, even though there be no challenge.

Any voter who is unable to appear before the board by reason of being sick, quarantined or unavoidably absent from the county, shall be entitled to register by signing the proper application blank stating the reason of his absence and his whereabouts on the day of registration and having it presented to the board on registration day by any registered voter. Such application must be sworn to before an officer authorized to administer oaths and cannot be received after registration day.

CORN SHOWS FOR EVERY COUNTY IN THE STATE

With a view to stimulating the interest in the securing of larger yields of better corn in Indiana, the Indiana Corn Growers' Association proposes a county-wide contest for every county in Indiana, for the year 1914. Not only does it hope that the proposed contest will demonstrate the possibilities of corn growing in the various counties, but it hopes to see as a result, better methods adopted over the larger areas, which will result in a lower cost of production.

The association also feels that Indiana should have a record of every corn grower in the year of 1914, who produces one hundred or more bushels of corn to the acre, on an area of not less than five acres. Therefore, where county contests are organized and carried with premiums amounting to $100.00 or more, the Indiana Corn Growers' Association will co-operate by offering a medal of proper design and suitably engraved, for every grower whose raises one hundred or more bushels of corn per acre, on an area of not less than five acres.

Already a number of counties have arranged for a contest. These to date are Wayne, Randolph, Boone, Monroe, Vigo, Montgomery, Madison, Decatur, Rush and Benton. Many others are almost ready to announce their premiums. Every county should hold such a contest. Suggestions and rules can be had from the secretary at Lafayette, Indiana.

Mrs. Albert Daggy is visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Carpenter, of Noblesville, for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter were former residents of this city and are well known here.

WOULD INCREASE THE PRODUCTION OF EGGS

There is in Indiana at this time, a strong movement for the production of more and a better grade of market eggs. One of the greatest factors in bringing about this movement, has been the annual Purdue Egg Show, held by the Freshman Agricultural students at Purdue University. This year it is hoped to extend the scope of the work and make the sixth annual exhibit, which will be held on May 6, 7 and 8, larger, better, and more instructive than ever.

The show was first organized in 1908, under the leadership of Otis B. Crane, instructor in poultry at Purdue University. It has grown each succeeding year until now, though a new institution, it is recognized by all who know of it, as a great factor in influencing the betterment of the poultry industry. It is backed by the Experiment Station and the Extension Department, and by many of the leading poultry men of the state.

The purposes of the annual exhibit are three: to encourage the production of more and a better grade of market eggs in Indiana; to increase the interest of the farmers in the poultry industry; and finally to bring the poultry men and farmers into closer touch with the university.

This year many valuable and attractive premiums will be offered to encourage the poultry men and farmers to enter eggs for competition.

Full information of the show can be obtained by writing to the secretary of the Purdue Egg Show, Lafayette, Ind.

SPEED KING HAS ENTERED BIG RACE.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March 20.—Arthur Duray, the sensational Frenchman, who eclipsed Bob Burman's high water mark of 141.73 miles an hour by attaining a speed of 142.9 at Ostend last fall, has entered the next Indianapolis five-hundred-mile race at the wheel of a 3-litre Peugeot, owned by J. Meunier, the Swiss chocolate king. The machine is the identical one that captured the Lesser Grand Prix at Boulogne last year, Boillot driving. Though but of 183 cubic inches piston displacement, it is easily capable of 96 miles an hour, because of which, together with its extreme light weight, it is expected to prove a most formidable contender.

Duray's Peugeot makes the third car of that make to enter the contest, the others being handled by Boillot, the European champion, and Goux, who won the five-hundred-mile race last year. This outfit is expected to rule a favorite for the race, no equally startling combination having put in its appearance to date.

Duray also plans to bring over the Fiat which he established his world's straightaway record last fall, sending it against Burman's time both on the speedway and Ormond beach, provided he can make satisfactory arrangements with the factory. It is Duray's theory that he can reach 150 miles an hour with this creation if he ever finds a place to let it out. Ormond beach ought exactly to suit his requirements in this respect, it is thought. On the speedway, of course, he would hardly be able to do over 125, as anything in excess of that figure might send him over a turn into the next county.

An odd circumstance comes to light in the fact that, despite his French training and environment, Duray is a regular American, having been born in New York City some forty years ago. He returned to Paris when but a boy, and has resided there ever since. His trip to this country next May will be the first he has ever made. English, by the way, is not in his vocabulary. He will thus present the queer spectacle of a native American who needs an interpreter to understand his countrymen.

The Crushed Stone Interests of Indiana have formed an organization known as the Indiana Crushed Stone Association with the object of educating the road builders to the advanced methods of building roads of crushed stone. The organization has offices in Indianapolis. Herman Evans of Lafayette was chosen president, E. B. Taylor of this city vice president, and R. N. VanWinkle, formerly of this city, was chosen secretary of the organization. The organization meeting was held in Indianapolis Friday.

Mrs. Joseph Bament was in Indianapolis Friday to consult a specialist. She is suffering from an enlargement of a salivary gland in her right cheek. She was accompanied to Indianapolis by her husband.

BIG AUDIENCE HEARS FIDDLERS

CONTEST HELD UNDER AUSPICES OF THE NINE O'CLOCK TEA CLUB IN OPERA HOUSE THURSDAY NIGHT—STILES-VILLE MAN IS AWARDED FIRST PRIZE.

With the Opera House crowded to its capacity twelve old-fashioned fiddlers wielded the bows on their faithful instruments with all their skill Thursday evening at the Old Fiddlers' Contest given under the auspices of the Nine O'Clock Tea Club of this city. A. E. Lambert, of Stilesville, was awarded the first prize and Morton Jessup and W. H. King of this city were awarded the second and third honors, respectively.

The fiddlers and several guitar and mandolin players were assembled on the stage when the curtain went up for the first performance. Grant Scott, who presided as ringmaster, selected Prof. I. E. Norris of the Asbury Conservatory of Music, Elijah Wallace and S. F. Lockridge as the judges of the contest.

Mr. Scott also explained that the contestants were not violin players, but were only fiddlers and instructed the judges regarding the rules of the contest. Each contestant as he was introduced, selected a guitar or mandolin player as an accompanist. Each player was encored and responded with a second or third selection.

Ben Turner, a well-known fiddler of this city, was so enthused with the old-fashioned music that he was unable to refrain from dancing throughout the entire contest. He gave an old-fashioned clog dance much to the delight of the audience.

After each contestant had performed, the judges adjourned from the box seats they occupied near the stage to make their decision. Because of the failure of the judges to agree, Lambert and Jessup, who tied for first place and Jones and Turner, who tied for third, were required to play their selections again in order that the judges might get a better line or their work.

Special selections were given by the contestants after the judges had adjourned to make a decision. Mr. and Mrs. Art Fry and Frank Detrow with piano, violin and guitar, rendered some good music, and were encored several times. Oscar Clark, Erban Elmore and Hallie Clark of Coatesville exhibited their musical skill when they took a turn at the piano, violin and guitar.

The prizes were awarded as follows: A. E. Lambert of Stilesville, first, $5; Morton Jessup, Jefferson township, second, $3; W. H. Jones, Greencastle, third, $2. All other contestants were presented with consolation prizes of $1 each.

The contest was a big success financially and a nice sum of money was netted for the ticket sale.

The program was as follows:

BAINBRIDGE MEN WIN THEIR SUIT

SECOND TRIAL OF THE CASE IN WHICH THREE MEN WERE SEEKING DAMAGES FROM MONON RAILROAD. RESULTS IN INCREASED JUDGMENT BEING RENDERED BY JURY.

After having been out for three hours, a jury in the Montgomery court, Friday night returned a verdict in which Adam Ader, Samuel Miller and Joseph Williams, of Bainbridge, were given verdicts for damages against the Monon Railroad. This trial was the second trial of the case, the railroad having been granted a new on their contentions that the damages awarded in the first trial were excessive.

The jury, however, believed that the judgments were not too high as it increased the amount of damage awarded each man in the first trial.

The suit grew out of the building of a switch by the Monon at Bainbridge. In doing so the railroad condemned lands belonging to Ader, Miller and Williams. The condemnation proceedings were started in the Putnam Circuit Court, but later was taken to Crawfordsville on a change of venue. In trial of the case on the original complaint, Williams was given a verdict for $1982; Ader received a verdict for $1488 and Miller a verdict for $750.

Then the railroad asked for a new trial which was granted. Allee & James represented Williams in the case, while Hays & Murphy represented Ader and Miller. Trial of the case consumed virtually all of this week. Arguments were completed and the case went to the jury at 5:30 o'clock Friday evening. The verdict was returned at 9:30 o'clock the same evening.

In rendering its verdict the jury increased the judgment of Ader $262; Miller's original damage was increased $50 and Miller will receive $50 more than was originally given him.

The marriage of Miss Nellie McIntyre and Lawrence L. Webb, of Roachdale, was solemnized at the office of County Clerk A. J. Hamrick at the court house Saturday at 10 o'clock. Rev. O. L. Reeves of Madison township, performed the ceremony. The bride is 20 years old and the groom is 22. Both are popular young people of Roachdale. They will make their home on a farm near Roachdale.

FRECKLES

February and March Bring Out Unsightly Spots—How to Remove Easily.

The woman with tender skin dreads February and March because they are likely to cover her face with ugly freckles. No matter how thick her veil, the sun and winds have a strong tendency to make her freckle.

Fortunately for her peace of mind the recent discovery of a new prescription, othine—double strength, makes it possible for even those most susceptible to freckles to keep their skin clear and white. No matter how stubborn a case of freckles you have, the double strength othine should remove them.

Get an ounce from your druggist and banish the freckles. Money back

COMMISSION IS EXPECTED

GENERAL OPINION IS THAT THE PENAL FARM MATTER WILL BE DECIDED WITHIN THE
NEXT TEN DAYS—MEMBERS HAVE STATED THAT THEY WOULD VISIT PUTNAMVILLE
THIS WEEK.

GREENCASLE IS ANXIOUS

After weeks and weeks of delay caused first by one thing and then by another, the State Penal Farm Commission, which has in charge the selection of a site for the new State Penal farm, probably will complete its work and announce the location of the farm within the next ten days.
This same promise has been made so many times that the public is beginning to refuse to take seriously any penal farm dope. Time and time again promises for an early decision have been made. But in each instance there has been a delay.

This time, however, it is promised by members of the commission that there will be no further delays. The commission expects to visit Putnamville and one and possibly two other sites this week. Early next week it expects to give its decision in the selection of a site.

Greencastle people who have taken interest in the matter—and virtually every citizen has taken an interest—are anxiously awaiting the decision of the commission. It is confidently believed here that the farm will be located in Greencastle.

FORCE ENTRANCE INTO UNIVERSITY LIBRARY

Some time Monday night someone forced entrance into the University Carnegie library building. So far as has been ascertained nothing was taken from the library. Entrance to the building was gained through one of the basement windows on the north side of the building. The window was forced open. Before forcing the basement window an attempt had been made to force one of the windows on the main floor of the building.

SENIORS OF LOCAL H. S.
STAGE MUSICAL SKETCH

The senior class at the local high school gave the third of a series of students chapels in the assembly room of the high school building this morning at 10:20 o'clock. Ten girls gave a clever musical sketch.

The young ladies were attired in gypsy costumes, in many gay colors.
A musical program consisting of several gypsy songs were given. Miss Lois Brown presided at the piano. A number of visitors were at the chapel services. The freshman class will have charge of the chapel exercises next Wednesday morning. Much interest has been taken by the four classes in the series of chapels, each endeavoring to give a better "stunt" than the others.

The girls taking part in the exercises this morning were Misses Lois
Shouse, Irene Selby, Janet Holloway, Vera Croft, Margaret Shouse, Lucy
Johnson, Elsie Browning, Ruth Miller,
Alma Sheets and Lou Pollard.

Rome Deitrick, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Deitrick, who reside a few miles east of the city, underwent an operation at a hospital at Jacksonville, Miss., last Thursday for tuberculosis of the spine. He was reported to be doing nicely in the last telegram received from Jacksonville. He has a responsible position at the head of the commissary department of one of largest cotton concerns in the South.

The public schools of this city will be dismissed Friday in order that the teachers may attend the meeting of the Southern Indiana Teachers' Association which will be held in Indianapolis that day.

The fire department was called to box 32 on the corner of Hanna and Crown streets Monday evening about 6:30 o'clock in answer to a false alarm turned in by some unknown person. A key from some residence was used in the box but it is not known where the key had been kept.

H. T. Broadstreet, of Cloverdale, has purchased the fixtures formerly used in the Maloney saloon on the north side of the square. The fixtures were moved to Cloverdale today on an automobile truck. Mr. Broadstreet will open a restaurant and soda fountain in the new building that was recently erected in Cloverdale.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewitt Van Ostrand, of Phillips, Wisconsin, who have been at West Baden, for some time visited L. P. Chapin and sisters Wednesday and Thursday of this week. Mr. Van Ostrand is president of the Goodland Company of Phillips and owns vast tracts of timber land in northern Wisconsin and Idaho. He was a student of DePauw at one time.

Mrs. Joanna Butler, age 71, who lives with her brother, Ed Landes, at No. 7 Olive street, met with a serious accident on Tuesday at about 10 o'clock when she fell in her home and broke a rib. Mrs. Butler had climbed from a chair up onto a refrigerator and was attempting to get down again when the chair turned as she stepped on it and she fell to the floor. Dr. Eugene Hawkins was called and attended the injured woman.

Fred Barnett, a farm hand employed by Thomas Brothers at his farm near Morton, badly cut his left leg just below the knee on Monday morning. Barnett was cutting wood with an ax when the ax slipped the blade striking his leg. Dr. Moore of Clinton Falls was called and dressed the injury.

James McD. Hays, a well-known resident of this city, was injured Tuesday afternoon about 2 o'clock when he stumbled and fell at the Vandalia station, his head striking one of the rails of the railroad track. His nose was badly mashed but no bones were broken in the fall.

Hazel Burton, through her attorney, Jackson Boyd, has filed suit in the Putnam County Circuit Court for divorce from her husband, Melvin Burton. The woman, in her complaint, alleges that they were married June 10, 1913, and lived together until November 12, 1913, when they separated. She says that her husband was guilty of cruel and inhuman treatment. Beside her divorce she asks the custody of their one child.

The case of Ernest Kivett against the Monon Railroad, in which Mr. Kivett asked damages, has been settled out of court and the case has been dismissed. Mr. Kivett, who resides in Mill Creek township, had three mules killed and two injured by a Monon train near Putnamville. The mules had wandered from the Kivett farm and got onto the railroad right-of-way near Putnamville. A train ran into them and killed three. Allee, James & Allee filed a suit asking damages and the railroad agreed to a compromise. Mr. Kivett received $632 in damages and the railroad company paid the court costs.

Two pieces of property which had been mortgaged to the State of Indiana for the benefit of the Common and Congressional School Fund held in trust by Putnam County, were sold at County Auditor Airhart Monday. Money belonging to the school fund which had been loaned on the property had not been paid and the mortgages were foreclosed. One piece of the property was owned by Fields Ellison, a colored man residing in Greencastle. Jackson Boyd bought the property paying $216.13 for it. The other piece was a 40-acre tract in Madison township. Boyd also bought it, paying $230 for it. It was owned by John D. Goddard.

MANHATTAN DRAMATIC CLUB GIVES CLEVER PLAY.

"Dot the Miner's Daughter, or One Glass of Wine," a good temperance play with a good moral showing the results of intoxicating liquor was given at Manhattan March 21 by the Manhattan Dramatic club for the benefit of the church.

Although it was given by home talent, each and every one acted their parts to perfection.

The crowded house saw the curtain go up as Mr. Mason, now a farmer, but one time a California gold miner, was sealing his doom in a large yellow envelope.

Eighteen years before while in a drunken quarrel with his mine partner Geo. Slifton, he seized a shovel and he struck him a blow on his head, and thought he had killed his partner.

David Mason taking his wife, their son and little Dot, George Clifton's daughter, whom Mrs. Mason had been caring for, left that night for parts unknown.

Richard Thornly, an escaped convict, under the name of Arthur Floyd, saw Mr. Mason and heard his confession to his good wife, and resolved to marry Dot for her money. Miss Winnifred Clifton, Floyd's deserted wife, recognizes him and attempts to stop him, but walks in a trap laid for her and is kidnapped and taken to New York.

Ebony, the colored servant of the farm house, overhears Floyd and Bill Torry and sees them carry Miss Minnie away, and tells Mr. Meadows and Herbert Mason all.

Herbert goes to New York and returns with Miss Minnie in time to stop the marriage ceremony which is in progress. Mr. Floyd tells of Mr. Mason killing George Clifton.

David Mason is taken to jail and is released after one year by the timely arrival of George Clifton alive, and well, who has been seeking his daughter for eighteen years.

The wedding scene with its pink and white colors was very beautiful. Miss Dot took every eye in her white satin gown and bridal veil, holding a bouquet of white carnations.

The scene where Miss Minnie brought Floyd to terms at the point of a revolver was very touching.

Aunt Hapzabah and her nephew were the comic players and did their part to perfection; from Aunt Hap leading Ebony in by the ear to Ebony hiding in the clock and causing a midnight scene, by causing the clock to strike, repeatedly, until it had run down, kept the house in laughter.

Those taking part in the play did so well they were invited to give the play in other towns. It was the best entertainment ever given at Manhattan. The cast of characters:

Obituary.

David Burkett was stricken with paralysis February 13th, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Witt Sutherland, six miles southeast of Russellville and after an illness of two weeks he peacefully passed away Feb. 27, 1914.

David Burkett was the son of Wesley and Elizabeth Burkett, and was born August 11, 1838. He married Charlotte Oliver March 13, 1860. To this union was born six children, three of whom died in infancy. On April 18, 1886, the loved companion of his youth was cut down by the Grim Reaper. On Sept. 19, 1889 he was married to Susan A. Hines. To them were born five children, one of whom, a little son, preceded him to the better land. He united with the Church of the Brethren about 1890 and was a faithful follower until the end of his life. He is survived by a widow, five sons and two daughters, fourteen grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

While the roses along his pathway were not with thorns, yet they shed sweet fragrance upon his couch of suffering and death while the gentle hands of his ones ministered to every need. He left his earthly tabernacle with a full assurance of entering into his "house not made with hands eternal in the heavens."

Funeral services were at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Witt Sutherland and interment was made at Blakesburg cemetery.

A Perfect Separator Oiling System

The new system of De Laval automatic oiling provides for a constant and liberal supply of CLEAN oil to every wearing surface of the machine at all times. There are no oil holes to fill up with dirt or perils to be neglected altogether, and every part is supplied with clean oil from the oil reservoir automatically and constantly.

In other, so-called, automatic oiling systems some of the parts have to be oiled by hand and no provision is made for getting rid of dirt that may get into the oil from the outside or of small particles of metal which come from wear, so that after a short time the oil supply becomes foul and injurious to the finely adjusted wearing parts.

DE LAVAL

CREAM SEPARATORS have the only automatic oiling system which provides for a constant supply of fresh oil and, at the same time, the constant discharge of the used oil together with all worn metal particles or dirt which may have gotten into the used oil.

The perfect system of De Laval lubrication means an easier running and a much longer wearing machine. Come in and let us explain the advantages of De Laval automatic oiling.

HE ROBBED HIS EMPLOYERS

OFFICERS THOUGHT THEY HAD TRACK OF THE CULPRIT, BUT UP TO THE PRESENT TIME HE HAS NOT BEEN LOCATED OR ARRESTED.

WAS RESULT OF BOOZING

Angered at his employer and crazed from the use of intoxicating liquor, Lawrence Flauriet, an employe at the Belle Dry Cleaning shop on south Indiana street, "jimmied" the cash drawer in a desk at that place of business and robbed it of its contents, which amounted to about $12, Wednesday evening. The local police were notified of the robbery and immediately telephoned the authorities of a number of towns in this vicinity.

With J. M. Thompson, manager of the cleaning shop, Flauriet left after the shop had been closed for the day and went to the Crawford restaurant for his supper. Later Flauriet returned to the shop and robbed the cash drawer. Mr. Thompson returned to work about 7 o'clock and discovered the robbery and notified the police. The robber was traced to the Monon station where he boarded a northbound freight train. The police authorities at all the stations north of this city as far as Lafayette were notified to be on the look-out for Flauriet.

Flauriet entered the cleaning shop through the front door to the office, to which he had a key. He turned off the light in the office room. The money drawer, in a desk in the office, was "jimmied" with a small crow-bar. The thief rifled the drawer and took all cash obtainable. In his "get-away" several small pieces of money were dropped on the floor.

Mr. Thompson, when he returned to the shop, found both of the rear doors to the building open and the money drawer on the floor in the office.

Flauriet came to this city several months ago from his home in New Orleans, La., and secured employment at the Bell Cleaning establishment. He had been considered a very responsible employe until the last few days, when he had been drinking. He was taken to task by Manager Thompson and became angry at the correction.

He remarked to one of the other employes that he thought he would leave that night for Chicago. This remark led the police to believe that had left on the Monon. The operator at the station saw him get on a northbound freight train about 7 o'clock.

Sheriff Boes was in Indianapolis Thursday to transfer Geo. Hoskins, a farmer residing near Reelsville from the Fletcher Sanitarium to the Indiana Insane Hospital. An insanity inquest was held several days ago at the Fletcher Sanitarium and the patient was adjudged of unsound mind. The necessary proceedings for the admitting Hoskins to the asylum were completed before he was taken there today.

Born, on March 15, 1914, to Foster Clippinger and wife, of Indianapolis, a son, named "H. F. Jr." Mrs. Clippinger was Miss Charlotte Tribblett; both parents are well-known here, having graduated from DePauw. Later advices are that this little one has passed to the beyond.

Jacob Thomas, a farmer residing near Clinton Falls, brought in 100 gallons of maple molasses, which were manufactured this season, and sold them to the local grocers.

Minutes Mean Dollars

IN TREATING ANIMALS

Don't you know the danger of delayed treatment in case of disease? You also realize that wrongly applied remedies are often worse than no treatment at all. In other words, not to diagnose a disease accurately may prove fatal. Every owner should be able to recognize an ailment and give prompt treatment at the first symptoms. Prompt action is the great secret of treating horses. Minutes mean dollars. Of course proper treatment is always necessary. That's just how Humphreys' 500 page Veterinary Manual will prove so valuable to you. It is by F. Humphreys, M.D., V.S., and teaches how to diagnose and give proper treatment. This book will save you hundreds of dollars and costs you nothing. It will be sent absolutely free on request to any farmer in order to introduce Humphreys' Veterinary Remedies. Remember, it is absolutely free. You do not have to order any remedies to secure the book. Address, Humphreys' Homeopathic Medicine Company, 126 William Street, New York City. This is a splendid opportunity to obtain a veterinary treatise that you should have in your library. As a reference work you will find it invaluable. To receive this valuable book send me a post-card by writing for it now.

Arrested the Wrong Man.

The police authorities at Roachdale arrested a man Wednesday night that was on the same freight train that Flauriet, who robbed the Bell Dry Cleaning establishment, was reported to have boarded in this city and he proved to be the wrong man.

Word was sent the local police Wednesday night that the arrest had been made and that the man answered the description of Flauriet. Police-man John Maloney went to Roachdale on the 9:57 Monon train this morning to get the man in custody. A telephone message from Maloney today at noon disclosed the fact that the wrong man had been arrested and that Flauriet was still at large.

The man arrested at Roachdale was released from jail this morning. The local police are still working on clues that will probably lead to the arrest of the robber.

DEATH OF INFANT DAUGHTER OF MR. AND MRS. LEE REEVES.

The death of Martha Geraldine, the 5-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Reeves on Franklin st., occurred Thursday morning at 7 o'clock, after only a few days' illness. The funeral will be held at the Reeves home Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The interment will be in the Forest Hill cemetery.

Cattle Disease in Parke.

A disease, pronounced by Dr. Craig of Purdue University as "toxine," has recently seized a large number of cattle in Parke county. John W. Adams, who has a herd of 117 cattle, noticed queer actions on the part of the animals but the nature of the ailment could not be ascertained. Dr. Craig is giving the cattle personal attention and the scourge is being wiped out.

Miss Julia Tobin returned to her home in Roachdale Thursday after a several days' visit with friends here.

HOG INDUSTRY OF INDIANA

MUCH CAN BE DONE TO REDUCE THE LOSSES RESULTANT FROM DISEASE, BAD MANAGEMENT AND IMPROPER CARE.

BENEFICIAL SUGGESTIONS

Indiana produces annually about 5,000,000 hogs. The loss of hogs from diseases and poor management in recent years has been tremendous. Farmers everywhere are seeking information that will aid them in carrying on in a better and more profitable way, the hog business.

The result of careful experiments made by the state experiment station, and the department of agriculture, show that much can be done by the farmer to eliminate, in a large measure, the loss now experienced. In the hope of presenting this information in a direct way and giving concrete help to the farmers, the Extension Department of Purdue University has planned a "Hog Production Campaign." Dr. Clark, of the Veterinary Department of Purdue, will give information relative to hog cholera. He will show by means of charts and demonstrations, how the disease has spread, how it affects the animals, how it can be detected, and how it can be controlled. Dr. Clark has had much experience in this work in Wisconsin and in Indiana, and will be able to give valuable aid to the farmers.

Another factor in the profitable hog production is the feeding and management of the brood sow and her litter. Mr. J. W. Schwab of the Animal Husbandry department, will give information on this phase of the question. How to feed high-priced corn, and make a profit on hogs must be solved by the farmer. Mr. Schwab will give some valuable assistance in this connection. His experience in the Iowa experiment station and at Purdue fits him to discuss this intelligently. During the campaign, from one to five meetings will be held in the following counties: Clinton, Decatur, Madison, Bartholomew, Starke, Hendricks, Pulaski, Elkhart, and St. Joseph.

Mrs. Robert Lee Petit, who has been in Cincinnati, has joined her husband, who recently came to Greencastle to accept a position with the Greencastle Cabinet Co. Mr. and Mrs. Petit are now living at 7 Poplar street.

THESE GEESE A GOLD MINE

THE FACTS BELOW SET FORTH ARE VOUCHERED FOR BY THE CHRISTIAN HERALD. HENCE THEY MAY BE CONSIDERED RELIABLE.

$14,000 PROFIT A YEAR

William H. Firke, a banker of Maunfield, Ill., owns the largest goose farm in the world.

The goose magnate states that he makes more money from his geese in a few weeks than he does from his bank in a year. The average goose costs him about seventy cents, and later sells in New York City for $1.70. The feed of the bird during its stay on the farm costs about thirty cents, and the freight bill is twenty cents more, leaving a profit of fifty cents on each bird; and Mr. Firke handled more than fourteen thousand geese last season.

Plenty of shelled corn and fresh water is the diet on which geese thrive. The first two weeks on the farm they are allowed to graze in the fields, but the final week they are kept closely housed and fed all the corn they will consume. Each of the houses has a concrete floor, is well lighted, has good ventilation and is connected with a farm watering system. They are not heated, as the geese, when protected from the weather, can withstand a temperature of twenty degrees below zero.

SLIGHT BLAZE AT THE GRAND CENTRAL HOTEL

The fire department was called to the Grand Central Hotel at the corner of College avenue and Walnut street Friday morning about 10:30, to extinguish a blaze on the roof of that building, which resulted in much damage from water and smoke. The fire started from a defective flue. The damage is covered by insurance.

The blaze started on the roof of the building next to the flue and had not gained much headway when the firemen arrived at the scene. The fire was discovered by Jesse Lewman, proprietor of the hotel. The smoke issuing from the upstairs of the building caused an investigation which resulted in an alarm being sent in.

A small hole was burned in the roof. The interior of the hotel was badly damaged by water. The plastering in the rooms on the lower floor of the building fell from the walls. The loss is covered by insurance carried with local agents.

BLACKSMITH IS VICTIM OF PECULIAR ACCIDENT.

Walter Crawford, a blacksmith of this city, was badly injured, in a peculiar accident while working at his shop on south Jackson street Friday morning about 9 o'clock. Mr. Crawford was mending a stove pipe, and was standing on a chair. The chair slipped and he fell heavily to the floor, his right side striking the corner of an anvil as he fell painfully injuring his side.

Mr. Crawford was able to walk to his home on west Walnut street and was attended by a physician. Although no bones were broken he was badly bruised about the body. He will be confined to his home several days as a result of the injury.

Funeral of Mrs. McCammack.

The funeral of Mrs. Robert McCammack, whose death occurred at her home near Belle Union Wednesday morning, was held at the Union Valley Church north of Belle Union on Thursday at 11 o'clock. The services were conducted by Rev. Reuben Masten. Burial was in the Stilesville cemetery.

Mayor Walter Cooper and Councilman Roy Abrams, George Dobbs, Frank Allen and E. A. Schmidt were in Bedford Thursday to inspect the sewer system of that city. The sewer system at Bedford is of the same type that will probably be constructed in Greencastle. The Bedford system is about 5 miles in length. The proposed system in this city will not cover as much territory as the Bedford system and the geographical condition here are much better than that in that city. The town is standing on a firm limestone basis and the ground is not as level as it is here. The new city administration will probably complete the plans for the proposed sewer in a few weeks.

GEORGE W. LYON PASSES AWAY AT MAQUAKETA, IA.

George W. Lyon departed this life at Maquaketa, Iowa, last Sunday morning. Mr. Lyon was born in Greencastle, Indiana, on May 30, 1859. He grew to manhood on a farm in Owen County, Indiana, and was educated in the public schools of Owen county, the State Normal at Terre Haute, the Danville Normal and at Valparaiso, where he graduated. He taught school at Reelsville, Manhattan, Limesdale and Fincastle in Putnam county, and about 20 years ago moved to Iowa where he married Eva L. Rochford, who died in Albukirke, New Mexico, five years ago. To this union was born one son, Leonard, who lives in Comanche, Iowa. In May, 1912, Mr. Lyon was married to Edna Grace Knight, who survives him, together with seven brothers and two sisters: F. M. Lyon and U. G. Lyon of this county, Charles E. Lyon of Topeka, Kansas, Oliver L. Lyon of Ft. Worth, Texas, Henry B. Lyon of Cheyenne, Wyoming, Harry H. Lyon of Ft. Scott, Kansas, and William W. Lyon of Washington, D. C. Mrs. F. M. Roberts of near Manhattan and Mrs. Sue M. Reed of Sullivan, Ind. No finer, truer, more Christian gentleman was ever born on Putnam county soil. His life work as a teacher, was an inspiration and benediction to hundreds of boys and girls, who had the privilege of being numbered among his pupils.

At the time of his death Mr. Lyon was the superintendent of a gas plant at Maquaketa, and his death was due to a fall which resulted in paralysis.

NEW PARCEL POST PROVISION

NEW RULING IS THAT LETTERS MAY BE SENT BY MAIL WITH PARCELS POST PACKAGES, UNDER THE NEWLY ESTABLISHED RULES.

A POPULAR CONCESSION

To further add to the popularity of the parcel post, Postmaster General Burleson today signed an order which will permit the attaching of a letter to a package when both bear their respective rates of postage and are addressed to the same individual. The sending of a communication with a parcel package heretofore has not been permissible.

Postal officials pointed out today that it is often of the utmost importance that the sender of an article of merchandise write a letter concerning it and that in order to avoid delay and to facilitate the transaction of business, it is highly desirable that the parcels and communications be delivered at the same time. It was with this in mind that today's order was issued.

The letter or communication, however, is not to be inclosed in the package, but is to be tied or otherwise securely fastened to the outside in such a manner as to prevent its separation from the package.

FOREST NOTES.

The Canadian forestry association, which recently met in Ottawa, has selected Halifax, Nova Scotia, for its next annual moving place.

The stringent requirement of the forest service that all sheep be dipped before entering the national forests has practically eradicated scabies on these areas.

The lumbermen of Maine in 1900 originated in this country the use of mountain lookout towers with telephone connection for the prompt location and suppression of forest fires. A California firm is selling eucalyptus charcoal at $25 a ton, as against $20 a ton for oak charcoal. Since most of the California-grown eucalypts do not make good timber, uses for other products of the trees are being sought. Fifteen small sawmills are cutting timber from the Powell national forest in southern Utah, more than 100 miles from the nearest railroad. They are run by settlers during time that can be spared from the crops, and supply local needs since there is no opportunity to ship timber in or out.

Danville Gazette: "The musical entertainment given at the college chapel Tuesday evening under the auspices of the Twentieth Century Sunday school class was of high order, but the crowd was very disappointing to the promoters. The evening was a bad one and there were many other attractions to divide the crowd. The class more than met the financial benefits they had reason to expect from an entertainment of this kind. The program was furnished by Misses Kreigh and Trout and Mr. Guthrie from the Asbury Conservatory of Music."

The Catholic church of this city will stage a big comic opera, "The Captain of Plymouth" in the Opera House April 14th and 15th. Arrangements are now being made for the staging of the play, which promises to be one of the most elaborate productions ever seen in this city.

The local committee composed of Ernest Stoner, J. F. Cannon, Frank Cannon, Jr., Miss Margaret Kreigh and Miss Katherine Allen have arranged for Mr. and Mrs. Cecil C. Crawford, directors of the play, to come to this city about the last of this month to start practice for the production.

An immense chorus will feature the production. The entire cast will be made up of about forty people. Twenty leading characters are included in the play, and will be supported by a well balanced mixed chorus.

The play is in three acts. The production is based on a historic scene by the dramatic company, represented by Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Crawford, be used in the play.

The American Roads Machine of Kenneth Square, Pa., has filed suit in the Putnam Circuit Court against E. F. Carter and H. W. Zant, of this county, asking judgment on a note of $165 which the company alleges is past due. The note was given in the purchase of some building machinery. Mr. Carter and Mr. Vinzant reside near Bainbridge.

Grafton Johnson, of Indianapolis, was here Sunday the guest of his father, Mrs. James B. Nelson.

GAVE CHECK FOR $16 BUT HAD NO MONEY

Albert Edwards, who lives at Roachdale, who has been working for the circulation department of an Indianapolis newspaper, got in bad with George Hinton, the liveryman, here last week when he gave a check for $16 in payment for a $13.50 livery bill. The liveryman gave him $2.50 in change.

When a local bank sent the check to Indianapolis for collection it came back marked "no funds" and carried with it protest fees amounting to $1.79 which Mr. Hinton was required to pay.

Mr. Hinton had a warrant for the arrest of Edwards sworn out in Squire Frank's court. The officers communicated with Edwards, who was in Bainbridge, and he promised to come to this city Monday and straighten the matter up satisfactorily to the liveryman.

Says Railroad Will Appeal.

Considering the fact that they had to make a series of figures, the jury made prompt return of a verdict in the cases of the Monon railroad vs. Miller, Ader and Williams. The case had been venue here from Putnam county and involved the condemnation of enough land belonging to the defendants upon which to construct a switch or turning "y." The land had been appraised but the company thought it was too high, hence the suit.

Williams' land had been appraised at $1,883 and the jury gave him $2,000; Ader's land was appraised at $1,418 and the award of the jury was $1,710, while Miller's appraisal was $750 and the award was $800. The company will likely appeal. —Crawfordsville Review.

A FUGITIVE IS ARRESTED AT LIMEDALE

GEORGE ALEXANDER WANTED IN BLOOMINGTON ON A CHARGE OF OPERATING A BLIND TIGER, IS ARRESTED AT HOTEL AT THE JUNCTION SUNDAY BY SHERIFF THEODORE BOES—SAID HE HAD SPENT $1,500 IN AVOIDING ARREST.

MONROE CO. SHERIFF HERE

Declaring that it had cost him $1,500 to attempt avoid paying a fine of perhaps $50, George Alexander of Bloomington, charged with operating a "blind tiger," arrested at Limedale Sunday by Sheriff Theodore Boes, willingly submitted to arrest and stated that he was glad to go back home.

Alexander was arrested at the request of Sheriff W. H. Jones of Monroe county, who came to Greencastle Sunday with the knowledge that Alexander was running the hotel at Limedale. He told Sheriff Boes that if Alexander caught sight of him (Sheriff Jones) that he would run and requested Sheriff Boes to make the arrest. The two officers went to Limedale and the Bloomington officer remained in the Vandavia passenger station while the local officer went to the hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander came to Limedale about a week ago and took charge of the Limedale hotel. They represented themselves as coming to Putnam county from Oklahoma and gave assumed names to the Limedale people.

When Sheriff Boes went to the hotel he asked several of the persons in the office if they knew Alexander but they said they did not. He finally asked for the man who was running the hotel and was taken to another room, where the man and his wife were at work. "Are you George Alexander?" he asked the man. Alexander admitted that he was, and the Sheriff placed him under arrest. At first Alexander could not understand why he had been placed under arrest but when told that the Monroe county sheriff was only a short distance away he understood why he was wanted.

The man had been a fugitive for many months. From Bloomington he went to Oklahoma but drifted back to Indiana. He told the officers that he was "homesick" and was glad to return to Bloomington.

ARBOR DAY IS APRIL 17.

Governor Ralston Urges State Wide Observance By Planting Trees.

Arbor Day is to be observed in Indiana on April 17, when it is hoped that active interest will be taken not only by school children, but by all civic and patriotic organizations, as well as by farmers in planting trees and shrubbery on home grounds and along highways. Governor Ralston has shown his interest in this public movement by a proclamation, in which he says:

"The State of Indiana was in its natural condition a forest of such varied magnificence that it had no superior in the whole country. From divers causes the wood places have been decimated until they are threatened with practical destruction unless the people of the state come to the rescue with a systematic effort to stop the useless waste and restore in some measure this valuable resource and multifarious asset to the state.

"Now, therefore, I, in obedience to the law of the state and in recognition of the evils avoided and the benefits secured by this course, do hereby designate Friday, April 17, 1914, as Indiana Arbor Day. Its careful observance by every public school in the state is directed under the law; and all other schools, colleges and universities are urged to co-operate by appropriate exercises in making the observance of this day universal. It is also requested that all municipal and county governments, women's clubs, fraternal societies, commercial clubs and other organizations and individuals throughout the state show regard for the day and its beneficent purpose by planting trees and in such other way as may by them seem most promotive of this important cause."

Miss Fay Reese, who is employed as stenographer in the Indiana Paper Co., offices in Indianapolis, was in Greencastle Sunday the guest of Mrs. Lettie Lee Hurst. Miss Reese formerly was employed in the Herald office in Greencastle and stopped off here Sunday on her way to Indianapolis from her former home in Roachdale, where she had been visiting friends. While employed in Greencastle Miss Reese lived at the home of Mrs. Hurst.

LIABLE TO A JAIL SENTENCE.

Are Tobacco Dealers Who Sell to Minors—Lowest Penalty Prescribed by Law is Fine of $10 and Jail Sentence.

The arrest recently of cigar store proprietors for selling tobacco to minors has resulted in the discovery by officers that the law covering the offense is very severe in the penalty it prescribes for violations.

Desiring to be lenient with the parties who transgressed the law because it was their first offense and because there were some extenuating circumstances connected with the cases the officers hunted up the acts of the legislature of 1905, which contain the law, to ascertain the lowest possible penalty that might be imposed. The officers were surprised to learn that the act not only prescribes as the minimum penalty a fine of $10, but also makes it mandatory upon mayors and police judges to add to the fine a jail sentence of ten days.

While the officers are disposed to deal as leniently as possible with first offenders they wish to lay stress upon the fact that in cases of the arrest of any dealer a second time for violations of the law, it will become their duty to impose the extreme penalty. In other words, dealers who take a chance by selling tobacco to boys under sixteen years of age, lay themselves liable to spending ten days behind the bars at the county jail, in addition to paying a fine for the offense.

While the law is severe on the dealer it is equally as severe upon any person who misrepresents his age to a dealer in order to obtain tobacco. Misrepresentation of age in such cases constitutes an offense that is punishable by a heavy fine.

BEECH TREES GIVE MOST LIGHTNING PROTECTION TO BUILDINGS ON THE FARM

Beech trees afford the safest protection to farm buildings from lightning fires, according to the figures compiled by the Indiana state fire marshal. Oak trees are the most susceptible to lightning charges.

The amount of protection afforded by trees depends upon the nearness of the tree to the building, says the fire marshal. If the tree stands close beside a barn or house, the lightning charge may pass from the tree to the building.

The degree of protection afforded by the various kinds of trees, with oak, the most susceptible to lightning charges, graded as 100, is in the following ratio:

Oak	100
Elm	77
Pine	33
Fir	10
Beech	2

It is the opinion of the fire marshal that many lightning fires in the state are averted by trees which stand near to farm buildings.

50 Per Cent. Are Not Insured.

Almost fifty per cent. of the fire losses on contents of buildings are not covered by insurance, according to the is a staple and essential tool for the up-to-date farmer.

The disc harrow is a tool that must be properly built and only of the very best materials.

The disc here shown is our best seller and practically an all steel machine. About the only castings being the heavy malleable spacers between the discs.

Built and braced to stand the most severe strain. Direct draft on axle providing light draft.

Bearing boxes are hardwood, oil soaked and easily replaced.

Extra heavy forged steel axle forged steel levers and ratchets.

Large bumper washers on inner ends of gangs. Deep, pressed steel weight boxes.

Gangs oiled through large tubes from weight pans.

Equipped with disc cleaners that operate by foot lever.

Center buckling of gangs is one of the greatest objections to the usual disc harrow. On this machine the draft bars pass through a heavy flat-piece of steel attached to frame, which is adjustable up and down to suit conditions. This feature entirely prevents gang buckling and provides even cutting.

Either round or cutaway discs are provided and equipped with either single or double wheel foretruck. Furnished in 16 and 18-inch sizes with 6 discs to each gang. These are the three and four-horse sizes. Call and see this machine.
